

Renee Gelin watched her beloved husband die before her eyes while on vacation in the summer of 2010. Adventures in Widowland brings the reader along on Renee's first five years of widowhood. We see into her heart and mind, primarily through posts Renee made to a young widows online community bulletin board. Because Renee writes with brutal honesty, humor and tenacity, the reader grieves with her, celebrates with her, and perseveres with her. Anyone who has lost a spouse or who knows someone who has lost a spouse, should read this book.
