

A system of magic is what I am writing about. There are many systems of magic, be they black or white. Most books never give the exact knowledge the occultist is seeking. This one is different, there are no months of training, just methods that work. This has to be the most sacred book I have ever written, it is about the Goetian spirits who are waiting to be called forth by the occultist to become his helper and guide. I found some ancient methods were not powerful enough, but my methods are very powerful, this is about summoning fallen angels. There must be no fear towards them, as there is no need to fear them.
