

Twelve Habits of the Creative Mind is a product of years of research, testing, and evaluation, and personal practice and consultation with artists, musicians, architects, writers, and creative men and women from all walks of life. Some of the concepts were developed at the Dow Creativity Center in Midland by the author; some from experience as a professor and creative workshop leader for over three decades. The habits illustrated here have been proven to work, and have resulted in successful enterprises as well as remarkable works of art. This is an accessible and popular guide for those who hope to develop their creative potential and access the hidden but dynamic resources that can truly change their lives.
