

Have you ever felt shy, anxious or worried about talking to or proposing to a lady? Do you often wonder why no man has made a proposal to you, despite your good looks? You are beautiful or handsome, intelligent and have good upbringing, yet you often fall into wrong hands; the hands of unfaithful men and women. This book offers you help. Want to know who to marry has a strong foundation in pre marital counselling. This book on biblical marriage is dedicated to the glory of God, to help those seeking guidance in knowing who to marry; and as a tool or resource to those who have already experienced much guidance and wish to help others who need relationship counselling. Do not beat about the bush. Be focused. Position yourself for necessary guidance and get that help you so much need. Be courageous, go ahead to overcome your shyness quickly and make your choice without delay. What should you look for in a man or a lady? - A man or lady who fears God. - A Christian who follows Jesus in words and actions. A diligent man and a virtuous woman have complementary virtues to match them together. You need a man or lady with whom you have mutual respect, honour, trust and encouragement for each other. You need a friend for a spouse. A true friend is someone you mutually trust each and can build your future life with. Pray with open eyes before you choose. Choose someone who loves and obeys God. A person who is responsible and of high integrity. Such a person who would not cheat you; neither mislead you nor base your relationship on just sex. Boost your skills. Learn where necessary. Take good and neat physical care of yourself. Believe that you are not cheap; therefore, maintain your dignity. Find out more about him or her. This is the time for discussion and interview; not the time for sexual intercourse. Seek counsel. Marriage is for companionship, sexual fulfillment and procreation, yes, you can enjoy great sex within your marriage. The Almighty God who made marriage provides permanent solution to any human problem on relationships and marriage. The author, Adefolaju Ashaye is a Bible teacher and marriage counsellor.
